

About us

The Thai-Norwegian Chamber of Commerce was established in 1996 with the aim of facilitating increased trade and investment between Thailand and Norway. It provides members with a forum to improve business conditions and opportunities as well as creating venues and channels for exchange and sharing of information.

The members can get helpful assistance from our office located in central Bangkok. The Chamber is co-located with Innovation Norway and cooperates closely with them at the Norwegian Business Centre.

Thai Norwegian Chamber of Commerce is a non-political, non-profit orientated legal entity dedicated to be a forum for businessmen in Thailand.

In 2010 the Chamber have 63 members

Membership

Thai Norwegian Chamber of Commerce has a variety of members, from multi nationale companies to individual members. To meet our members different needs, we provide three different memberships: corporate, individual and premium membership.

Through its membership of the Joint Foreign Chambers of Commerce in Thailand, the Chamber identifies challenges and opportunities in doing business in Thailand, seeking support in Thai Government policies to address such issues. This includes interaction with key business stakeholders in Thailand, the Thai Customs Department, The Immigration Department, as well as providing access to top officials in the Thai administration.

Thai Norwegian Business Review

The Thai-Norwegian Business Review Magazine is issued three times yearly. The magazine contents a member directory and is distributed free to the members and other contacts. The Business Review features articles about business, trade and lifestyle in both Norway and Thailand.

www.norcham.com

The Chamber website www.norcham.com has information about our latest activities, the political situation in Thailand, and a member directory which all time will be updated. Furthermore, a number of links provide useful intelligence within business and trade.

Advertising

You can expose your business through Thai Norwegian Chamber of Commerce either by advertising in the Business Review or putting out your advertisement or banner at our website.

Networking

Breakfast Meetings
Networking luncheon
Business Seminars
Dinner Events

In a business forum the members can interact, gather and exchange information through a variety of functions and activities. This is a good opportunity to get personal advice from fellow members.

The Chamber organises several business related events covering business affairs, useful seminars to get updated on political life and legal affairs. There are regular networking luncheons and business dinners (also jointly with other Nordic Chambers) with interesting speakers covering topics of a business, technical or cultural nature.

Here, members have an opportunity to meet a professional network and exchange experiences from a new culture.
